

House Resolution No. 2833

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have dedicated an exceptional amount of time and energy to ensuring that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Sarah Germann of Bogard, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a cook in the Carrollton R-VII School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on May 25, 2007, in well-deserved retirement; and

Whereas, in her eleven year role as a high school cook, Sarah Germann has made certain that Carrollton R-VII students have well-balanced, nutritional meals to get them through their studies and extra-curricular activities; and

Whereas, during her tenure with Carrollton R-VII schools, Sarah Germann also proved adept at preparing and serving delicious school banquets, much to the delight of all attendees; and

Whereas, Sarah Germann brought to her Carrollton R-VII work a wealth of general life experiences and expertise garnered from earlier employment as a quality controller at Houseworth Printing and Ann's Wedding; and

Whereas, Sarah Germann was a member of the Bogard School Board before its consolidation with the Carrollton R-VII School District, has worked summers and weekends at rest homes as a cook, has been active with the Child Study Club and the Parent Teacher Association, and taught Sunday School and was pianist for her church for over 50 years; and

Whereas, Sarah Germann enjoys travel, volunteer work, reading, decorating, crafts, and her family and church involvement; and

Whereas, Sarah Germann is justifiably proud to be known as the loving mother of five wonderful children who are pursuing a variety of occupations: Ronnie Germann of Farm Bureau Insurance, Kenny Germann of Germann Construction Company, Janice Wilson of Carroll County Trust Company, Major Barb Marchiando of the United States Air Force Medic Divisions, and Harold Germann cattleman/farmer; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative activities in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri citizens as Sarah Germann at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered by Sarah Germann as a school staffer and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Sarah Germann of Bogard, Missouri.
